

Point-of-Service

One solution, many possibilities

Transform your old point-of-sale capabilities into a point-of-service gateway, leveraging loyalty, promotions, and other consumer-facing offerings.

Flooid's Point-of-Service supports many selling formats including retail, grocery, fashion, and hospitality. This common platform coupled with our omnichannel capability provides a seamless point-of-service, allowing customers to shop, order and query any transaction anywhere at anytime.

Some of Flooid's Point-of-Service capabilities include:

- Associate enablement mobile solutions
- Promotions, personalized offers and loyalty
- Self-Checkout and Convertible Lanes
- Basket-handling for eCommerce
- Forecourt management
- In-store and central management capability
- Central infrastructure benefits
- Multi-company capability supporting franchise environments

Flooid's Point-of-Service solution delivers consistent, fulfilling customer experiences across multiple formats, channels, territories and types of customer journeys.

Device and operating system agnostic

Flooid's Point-of-Service offering is operating system and hardware agnostic, suitable for mixed estates. It could add years to the life of your hardware through backwards compatibility. Choose out-of-the-box, then update and add capabilities when you want.

Future-proof commerce platform

The Flooid platform grows and flows across your entire online and in-store operation. Our flexible Java-based solution allows you to leverage both legacy and new hardware as you digitally migrate, scale, and ultimately succeed.

An unrivaled partner network

From hardware and cloud leaders to local experts across the globe. We have the team to get the job done.

Superior end-user experience

Our intuitive user interface is market-tested and role-driven. We pride ourselves on reducing training time and removing frustrations.
